

2010 Interpretation Skills

W O R K S H O P

Deas Island Regional Park, Delta 9 am – 4 pm

Interested in leading your own nature and recreation programs or working in heritage interpretation? Volunteers, recreation leaders and interpreters will benefit from this professional skills development workshop. Regional Parks interpreters will share their experience and craft. Network and meet others interested in engaging and affecting change in their audiences.

PART 1

Saturday, April 10

Learn the philosophy of interpretation, learning styles, group management and elements of well planned programs.

PART 2

Sunday, April 11

Sample different techniques for delivery, like storytelling or prop use. Come prepared to deliver your own 5 minute 'mini-program' and receive constructive feedback.

These workshops will inspire experienced and novice interpreters alike! Workbook provided.

Ages 13+

$45/person/day

Call 604-432-6359 to register.

metro
vancouver