

Health Promoting Schools Initiative Call for Advisory Committee Members

PHE Canada is calling all individuals interested in becoming a member of the Health Promoting Schools Advisory Committee which helps support schools in promoting good health.

Funded by the Lawson Foundation, the PHE Canada Health Promoting Schools (HPS) initiative is a comprehensive, multi-year project that aims to support schools across Canada to become informed of what a HPS approach is and the positive impact it can have on the health of students, staff and families - as well as the impact it can have on the quality and cohesiveness of a school community.

HPS Advisory Committee

Interested Advisory Committee Candidates will be requested to assist with the following components of the initiative:

School & Student National HPSGrants

- Assist in the development and guidance of National HPSGrant criteria;
- Assist in the selection of successful grantees (schools & students);
- Act as a go-between with PHE Canada and grantees of your respective province.

Renumeration/Expenses

- Advisory Committee members will receive compensation for their services.
- PHE Canada will reimburse members for travel/accommodations to and from any face-to-face meetings.

**For further details on monetary compensation, please inquire within.*

If you are interested in being part of the HPS Advisory Committee, please submit your resume or letter of intent by Friday, October 7th, 2011 to:
